ALTA VISTA MENU

We recommend that meals be taken “family style”. Catering a selection of dishes for a group to share is more efficient than catering a different meal for every individual guest, bearing in mind that this is a family kitchen and not a public restaurant.

We request that you order lunch and/or dinner soon after breakfast so that our chef can go to the market to obtain the freshest possible ingredients. Late requests will depend on in-house availability of ingredients.

For some menu items where the ingredients are not locally available but have to be sourced from further away, we request at least a day’s notice so that the staff have time to obtain fresh ingredients.

If you have special requests, our chef will try to fulfill them, within limits of available ingredients from markets and his capability.

Please note that as a family kitchen, we are unable to offer strictly Halal or Kosher meals. However there are many menu items without pork or lard.

All prices are in 1000s of Rupiah, per single portion
